

District Color Corps and Color Corps Commander training in Northern Virginia

See below for the details about the next training session.

Event: Color Corps and Color Corps Commander Training;

When: Saturday, 28 August;

Start Time: 8:30am-11:30am;

Doors Open: 8:00am;

Host: MSgr. Francis L. Bradican Assembly # 2996;

Location : Holy Spirit Catholic School Gymnasium, 8800 Braddock Road, Annandale, VA 22003-4150;

Who: All District Sir Knights whether they own the Official Regalia Dress (ORD) or not. Again, you do not need to own the ORD to attend training;

Training Attire: Wear casual (rubber soles on shoes not recommended) shoes. Bring beret, service baldric, sword, and gloves. Limited loaner gear may be available. If your assembly has extra gear, e.g., service baldrics, swords, etc., please bring it if possible;

Training Purpose: Meets the 2-year refresher training requirement for all Sir Knights interested in learning how to participate in Color Corps and Honor Guard activities. Training includes the proper wear of the ORD and beret, the Supreme Color Corps Drill Manual, facing movements, and commands.

Please advise Faithful Color Corps Commander Bill Canavan (wcanavan@cox.net) or 703-866-5217 by Friday, 27 August to report the number of participants planning to attend training from your assembly to ensure the host has an adequate supply of coffee and donuts are on hand.